

Secondary Greek Teacher (Part-Time)

The Secondary Greek Teacher is responsible for instructing students in Biblical (Koine) Greek through a classical Christian framework, forming students in wisdom, truth, and goodness. This role integrates rigorous language study with gospel-centered discipleship, helping students grow in both skill and understanding of Scripture.

Position Overview

The Greek teacher will lead students through the study of New Testament Greek, including grammar, translation, and interpretation, with an emphasis on developing both linguistic precision and theological insight. Instruction should cultivate disciplined habits of learning, a love for language, and the ability to engage Scripture thoughtfully and faithfully.

Primary Responsibilities

- Teach secondary Greek courses using classical pedagogy
- Guide students in learning the Greek alphabet, pronunciation, grammar, and vocabulary
- Lead students in translating and interpreting selected New Testament texts
- Foster an appreciation for the beauty, structure, and logic of the Greek language
- Assess student progress regularly and provide timely, constructive feedback
- Communicate clearly with parents regarding student progress and needs
- Collaborate with faculty to support student learning and manage overall workload
- Mentor students in discipleship and Christian character

The teacher will instruct in a way that leads to student mastery by:

- Teaching with clarity, energy, and thoughtful organization
- Engaging students in daily practice through reading, translation, and recitation
- Emphasizing memorization of paradigms alongside application in translation
- Guiding classroom discussion and developing students' ability to articulate ideas
- Explaining new concepts in terms that students can understand
- Challenging students appropriately without discouragement
- Helping students retain and apply knowledge over time

The teacher will cultivate a classroom that:

- Reflects a love for the Gospel and a commitment to truth
- Maintains a tone of joy, order, and attentiveness
- Encourages diligence, responsibility, and excellence
- Provides clear behavioral expectations
- Demonstrates love through both instruction and discipline

Professional Responsibilities

- Be punctual, prepared, and organized
- Maintain accurate records and grading
- Submit lesson plans in a timely manner
- Return graded work promptly
- Communicate effectively with students, parents, and staff
- Pursue ongoing professional and spiritual growth

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree preferred
- Background in Greek or classical languages
- Familiarity with or willingness to learn classical Christian education
- Strong communication and classroom leadership skills
- Commitment to the mission and values of Trinity Classical School

Salary & Benefits

- Part-time position teaching up to four one-hour classes per day, Monday through Thursday
- Compensation based on experience

Summary

This role is not only academic but formative. The Secondary Greek Teacher helps students grow in discipline, clarity of thought, and a deeper understanding of Scripture, equipping them to engage God's Word with both skill and reverence.
